

Vestry Minutes Summary September 24, 2013

- Stewardship Director Nancy Grantham and Campaign Co-Chairs Stan and Liz Kelly reported on “Transforming Lives,” the 2014 annual giving campaign. Informal “Take Five” gatherings will be held in parishioners’ homes. The campaign kickoff will be a barbeque and bluegrass event at church on Sunday, October 6.
- Parish Administrator Tom McDowell and Treasurer Carolyn Twisdale reported the audit was completed and went well. The auditor presented his report to the Finance Committee.
- Senior Warden Kevin Williams reported the St. Paul’s Bazaar will be held November 20. St. Margaret’s Circle volunteered to take responsibility for the event. Kevin expressed a big “thank you” to St. Margaret’s Circle.
- EYC has begun its meetings on Sundays after the 10:30 service. Interim Youth Minister Duana Cisney says the format is open to suggestions once we get through an initial eight week commitment.
- The Men’s Ministry Sunday Breakfast has begun with many satisfied smiles. The menu provides variety for all.
- The bell will sound at 10:00 a.m. on Sundays to mark the end of Christian Formation classes.
- The Diocesan Council needs another member – suggestions were forthcoming.
- “Jerry Luffman Day” is September 25, 2013, in honor of Building and Grounds Supervisor Jerry Luffman’s final days on the job. Jerry has kept the facilities and grounds in good repair and looking beautiful for 16 years. Sexton John Lewis will be our new Building and Grounds Supervisor. Bill Rahn will take on more duties as well.
- The newly landscaped and planted areas under the oak tree at Pilot View and our West entrance parking lot are beautiful. A stone wall has been added for retention of earth and ground cover on the hill. Janice Lewis spearheaded this with the Building and Grounds Committee.
- Ed Colhoun reported a month’s respite for Long Range Vision, but Scott Wierman and Anne Dunne will be reporting to the Vestry and the parish next month.
